

So the motion to adjourn was not agreed to.

After debate,

Mr. SOLOMON submitted the following amendment to the resolution:

Page 2, line 6, strike "one hour" and insert "two and one-half hours".

Page 3, beginning on line 5, strike "It shall be in order at any time to consider" and insert "Consideration of each of the first three titles of the bill shall begin with an additional period of general debate, which shall be confined to the pending title and shall not exceed 90 minutes equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Appropriations. It shall be in order at any time during the reading of the bill for amendment to consider".

On motion of Mr. SOLOMON, by unanimous consent, the previous question on the amendment and the resolution was considered as ordered.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. DICKEY, announced that the yeas had it.

So the amendment to the resolution was agreed to.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to the resolution, as amended?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. DICKEY, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. FROST objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,

The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.

¶107.8 ORDER OF BUSINESS—

CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 2127

On motion of Mr. PORTER, by unanimous consent,

Ordered, That during the consideration of the bill (H.R. 2127) making appropriations for the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and related agencies, for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1996, and for other purposes, pursuant to House Resolution 208, the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole may postpone until a time during further consideration in the Committee of the Whole a request for a recorded vote on any amendment, and that the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole may reduce to not less than five minutes the time for voting by electronic device without intervening business, provided that the time for voting by electronic device on the first in any series of questions shall not be less than fifteen minutes.

¶107.9 ORDER OF BUSINESS—

CONSIDERATION OF AMENDMENTS—
H.R. 2127

On motion of Mr. PORTER, by unanimous consent,

Ordered, That during the consideration of the bill (H.R. 2127) making appropriations for the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and related agencies, for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1996, and for other purposes, in the Committee of the Whole, pursuant to House Resolution 208, the following shall also be applicable:

The following amendments (identified by their designation in the Congressional Record, pursuant to clause 6 of rule XXIII) may amend portions of the bill not yet read for amendment, shall not be subject to amendment, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole, if offered by the Member designated: the amendment numbered 36 to be offered by Mr. Obey and an amendment en bloc consisting of amendments numbered 60, 61, and 62 to be offered by Ms. Pelosi.

The time for debate on each of the following amendments to the bill (identified in the Congressional Record, pursuant to clause 6 of rule XXIII, unless otherwise specified) and any amendments thereto shall be limited to 40 minutes equally divided and controlled by the proponent of the amendment to
